

Parcel Carrier Master Service Agreement

doc_aur_fedex_msa | Synthetic agreement

Document ID	doc_aur_fedex_msa	Effective	2026-07-15
Customer	Aura Brands, Inc.	Counterparty	FedEx Demo Carrier

1.0 Purpose and Scope

This synthetic agreement defines the commercial and operational terms used by the Aura Brands demonstration environment. It is designed for retrieval, reconciliation, authorization, and citation testing.

2.1 Service Levels

Expedited parcels have a two-calendar-day delivery commitment measured from carrier acceptance.

3.2 Billing

Each billed shipment must identify its tracking number, base transportation charge, fuel surcharge, and total charge.

4.2 Late Delivery Credit [clause_sla_credit_4_2]

When an eligible shipment misses the promised delivery time, Aura Brands receives a provisional credit equal to 10 percent of the carrier manifest charge, rounded to the nearest cent. Credit rate: 10%.

5.1 Disputes

Aura Brands may dispute an overcharge using the tracking number, carrier manifest amount, invoice line, and applicable service credit.

Acknowledgment

The parties acknowledge that this document is synthetic and has no legal effect. Its terms are authoritative only inside the Aura Brands portfolio dataset.

Aura Brands Demo Approver

Counterparty Demo Approver
