

Customer Return and Shipping Delay Policy

doc_aur_return_shipping_policy | Synthetic operating document

1.0 Customer Scope

Support users may disclose public order status, tracking links, expected delivery windows, and this return policy.

2.0 Delay Advisory

When a carrier exception changes the expected date, support may draft a factual delay advisory without exposing internal carrier costs or contract terms.

3.0 Returns

Eligible unopened consumer goods may be returned within 30 days of delivery using an issued return authorization.

4.0 Restricted Information

Supplier pricing, profit margins, financial ledgers, and carrier agreements are not customer-facing information.
